

The Oklahoma Library Association Announces

2013 Sequoyah Book Awards Competition

It's time for young Oklahomans to start their annual reading adventure!

Students in grades three through twelve read from the appropriate Sequoyah masterlist of nominees and then vote next February and March for their favorite book.

The nation's third-oldest youth-choice literary award has honored books from Old Yeller—the first winner in 1959—to The Hunger Games—the world-wide phenomenon that won in 2011.

High School Masterlist

Students in grades 9–12 who have read or listened to at least three books from these nominees will be eligible to vote for the High School Sequoyah Book Award.

Split by Swati Avasthi

Clockwork Angel by Cassandra Clare

Matched by Ally Condie

Payback Time by Carl Deuker

Happyface by Stephen Emond

Will Grayson, Will Grayson by John Green and David Levithan

Girl, Stolen by April Henry

Jumpstart the World by Catherine Ryan Hyde

Two the Hard Way by Travis Hunter

Hunger by Jackie Morse Kessler

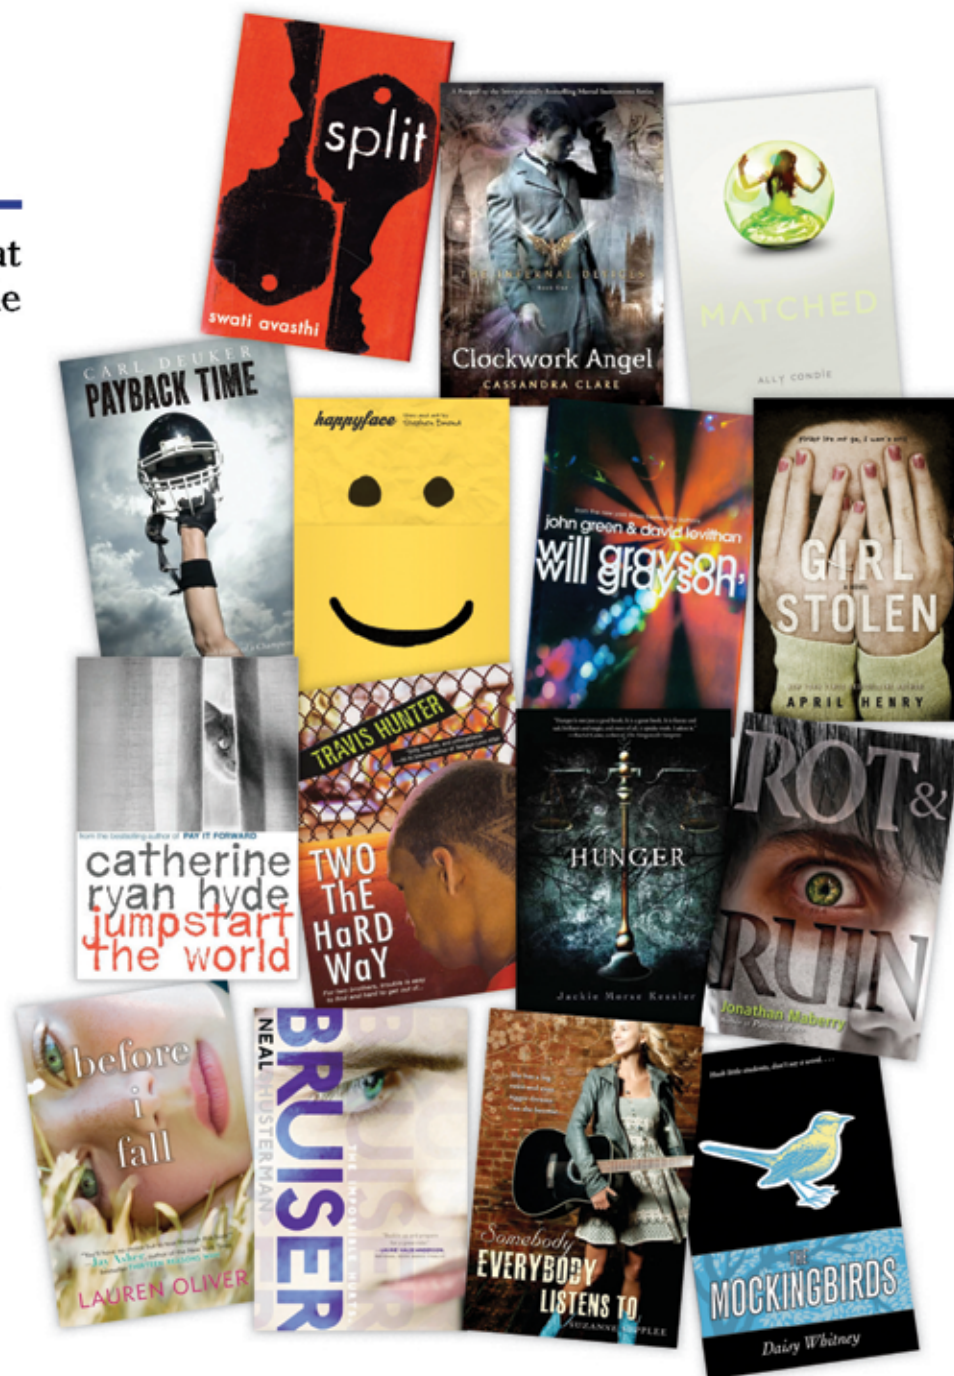

Rot & Ruin by Jonathan Maberry

Before I Fall by Lauren Oliver

Bruiser by Neal Shusterman

Somebody Everybody Listens To by Suzanne Supplee

The Mockingbirds by Daisy Whitney

Intermediate Masterlist

Students in grades 6–8 who have read or listened to at least three books from these nominees will be eligible to vote for the Intermediate Sequoyah Book Award.

The Danger Box by Blue Balliett

The Dead Boys by Royce Buckingham

Crunch by Leslie Connor

Blindsided by Priscilla Cummings

Warriors in the Crossfire by Nancy Bo Flood

90 Miles to Havana by Enrique Flores-Galbis

A Crack in the Sky by Mark Peter Hughes

Sources of Light by Margaret McMullan

Woods Runner by Gary Paulsen

The Nightmarys by Dan Poblocki

Scrawl by Mark Shulman

The Grimm Legacy by Polly Shulman

After Ever After by Jordan Sonnenblick

Saving Sky by Diane Stanley

One Crazy Summer

by Rita Williams-Garcia

Newspapers for this education program provided by

The Oklahoma Library Association Announces 2013 Sequoyah Book Awards Competition

It's time for young Oklahomans to start their annual reading adventure!

Students in grades three through twelve read from the appropriate Sequoyah masterlist of nominees and then vote next February and March for their favorite book.

Children's Masterlist

Students in grades 3-5 who have read or listened to at least three books from these nominees will be eligible to vote for the Children's Sequoyah Book Award.

The Strange Case of Origami Yoda
by Tom Angleberger

The Fast and the Furriest by Andy Behrens

Out of My Mind by Sharon M. Draper

The Buffalo Are Back by Jean Craighead George

How to Clean a Hippopotamus: A Look at Unusual Animal Partnerships
by Steve Jenkins and Robin Page

Fish by Gregory Mone

Black Elk's Vision: A Lakota Story
by S.D. Nelson

The Fantastic Secret of Owen Jester
by Barbara O'Connor

The Junkyard Wonders by Patricia Polacco

Ruth and the Green Book
by Calvin Alexander Ramsey

Star in the Forest by Laura Resau

Mirror Mirror: A Book of Reversible Verse
by Marilyn Singer

The Dancing Pancake by Eileen Spinelli

Moon Over Manifest by Claire Vanderpool

On the Blue Comet by Rosemary Wells

Good Reads for Younger Readers

The Oklahoma Library Association (OLA) established the Donna Norvell Oklahoma Book Award in 2006 to honor books that have made a significant contribution to the field of literature for children through third grade. The award is selected by librarians who are members of OLA's Sequoyah Book Award Committee.

Past Winners

2006 ● Wild About Books by Judy Sierra

2007 ● Leaf Man by Lois Ehlert

2008 ● Not a Box by Antoinette Portis

2009 ● Fred Stays with Me! by Nancy Coffelt

2010 ● Maybe a Bear Ate It!

by Robie Harris and Michael Emberley

2011 ● Chicken Dance by Tammi Sauer

More lists and information on the back!

This program is open to all Oklahoma Schools and Public Libraries. For additional details, visit the Oklahoma Library Association at www.oklibs.org

Newspapers for this education program provided by

